There will be a memorial meeting the fourth Sunday in July at Golden Creek church. Let everybody come and show respect for the dead. Several good speakers are to be present and some good singers will also be there. Bring song books and come prepared to spend the day.

We are requested to announce that Children's day exercises will be given next Sunday at Salem Methodist church, beginning at ten o'clock in the morning. Several prominent speakers will also be present to address the crowd. Dinner will be served on the church grounds.

The Gates rural graded school will begin its next term Monday, July 19, with the following teachers: W. F. Welborn, principal; Hovey R. Seaborn and Miss Nina Griffin, assistants. The teachers hope to meet all the pupils and patrons at the school house the opening morning.

At a recent meeting of the board of trustees of the Oolenoy graded school the following teachers were elected for the next session: Rev. Willie Hammond, principal; Misses Emma Hammond and Annie Williams, assistants. For the past two years Mr. Hammond has most successfully filled the pastorate of the Oolenoy Baptist church and it is hoped that his work as a teacher will prove equally as efficient. He is a graduate of Furman University. The two ladies are both graduates of the G. W. C. of Greenville, and are teachers of experience.

Married, by J. B. Newberry at his residence on July 11, Miss

Working For Prohibition

Below is a list of Pickens county Sunday school superintendents and their postoffice address, as we have been able to gather them:

J. B. Findley, Dacusville.

J. L. Bolt, Easley.

The above list of township superintendents have been appointed to see after the resolution passed at the prohibition meeting of June 19, "That each Sunday school in Pickens county, regardless of denomination, appoint three ladies from their schools to see that every voter is properly registered and pledge them to vote the prohibition ticket on the 14th of September, 1915."

B. J. JOHNSON,

S. S. Supt. Pickens Co.

A Double-Header

Married, at Freeman Whitmire's, near the Pickens mill, July 8, B. F. Chappell of Easley and Miss Ollie Snoddy. The groom is a son of G. M. Ohappell of near Rosman, N. C., and is employed in E. N. Hines' store at Easley. The bride is a daughter of John Snoddy of Sugartown, near Easley. They will make their home in Easley. M. F. Hester, N. P., in his usual way performed the marriage ceremony.

At the same place and same time of the above marriage E. L. Ragsdale and Miss Nolin Hines, both of Easley, were married. M. F. Hester also performing this ceremony. Mr. Ragsdale is a son of E. W. Ragsdale, sergeant of the county changing, and the bride is a daughter of Ephriam Hines, who is in the mercantile business at Easley.

We wish success all along the voyage of life to both these couples. ONE PRESENT.

Essie May Simmons and Edward L. Jones. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Simmons of Pickens route 1. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones of Pickens route 4. After the ceremony the bridal party left for the home of the groom's parents, where a reception was tendered them. The young couple have many friends who wish them much happiness.

The following announcement will be of interest to many people of Pickens county: "Mr. Joseph Edward Leach and Mrs. Louise Virginia Moore announce their marriage on Thursday, the eighth of July, 1915. Easley, S. C." The ceremony was performed in Greenville and was quite a surprise to their friends. Mr. Leach is a well-known attorney of Easley, having come there from Oklahoma about three years ago. Before going to Oklahoma he graduated at the University of South Carolina and had practiced law at several places in this state. Mrs. Leach is a daughter of J. N. Dean, who moved to Easley from Duncan about two months ago, and a niece of Alvin H. Dean of Greenville. They will be at home at Easley after the 20th of July. We wish them a long life of usefulness.

Local and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. James Tribble have as their house guests, Miss Legare, of Charleston; Miss Frances Robinson, Easley; Miss Frances Bruce and Messrs. Haggood and Sydney Bruce, of Pickens.—Anderson Mail, July 8.

C. B. Smith of Central was called to Pelzer last week to the bedside of his brother, E. S. Smith, who died Monday night, July 5. Funeral and burial services were held at Big Creek church, Williamston, Tuesday afternoon.

The Pickens Hardware & Grocery Co. has just installed a large McCray refrigerator and are now prepared to protect butter, cheese etc., and fresh vegetables from the summer heat. This store is continually looking after the interests of its customers.

C. L. Cureton, of Pickens, a member of the governor's staff, will go to Greenville Thursday, when the governor and his staff will review the second regiment of the South Carolina National Guards, which regiment has been encamped at Greenville for the past week.

Mrs. J. M. Aiken of Piedmont died at her home Monday morning and was buried at Shiloh church Tuesday. Mrs. Aiken was the mother of Mrs. F. L. Finley, of Pickens, who has the sympathy of many friends in her bereavement. She had been at the bedside of her mother for several days before her death.

Prof. J. W. Ballentine, former principal of the Pickens school but taught last session at McClellansville, has ordered us to send his paper to New York, where he is taking a six weeks' special course at Columbia University. Mrs. Ballentine and their little son Fred are with him and a card from him says they are enjoying their stay very much.

The flood over in Oconee county caused by the recent rains is said to have been equal to the freshest of 1903 in many respects. Seneca river at Calhoun was highest it has been since 1876, and much bottom land corn was washed away. It is reported that a small mill on the headwater of Little river was washed completely away, and the miller with it. Whether he was drowned or not was not positively stated. Many bridges were washed away.

Local and Personal

Is your name written there?—on The Sentinel's honor roll.

Drs. C. N. Wyatt and J. E. Boggs of Easley, were visitors in Pickens Wednesday.

We offer The Pickens Sentinel and the Southern Cultivator both one year for $1.50, or The Sentinel and the Progressive Farmer both one year for $1.50, or all three for $2.00.

Besides the prizes offered to members of boys' corn clubs, a list of which is published this week, additional prizes are offered to members in Pickens county. It will pay the boys who win.

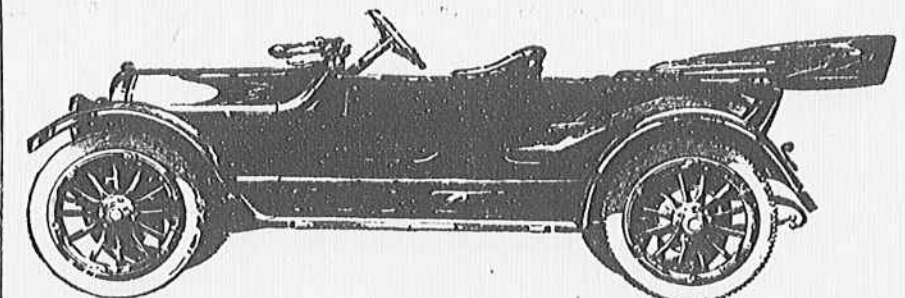

G. A. Ellis, one of Pickens' best known bachelors, has traded some of his Pickens county land to T. F. Floyd for a large apartment house on Townes street in Greenville. It has been reported that Mr. Ellis would move to Greenville, but he says he has not decided to leave Pickens.

The heirs of the estate of the late Col. C. L. Hollingsworth have leased the Cedar Mountain rock quarry situated on the Southern Railway between Liberty and Easley, to Mr. Maurice Klein, and it will be started up again in a few days. It will be operated by the Southern Crushed Stone Co. This plant has been idle for the past three years.

The revival meeting which has been in progress at the Pickens Methodist church for an even two weeks closed Sunday night. Rev. A. E. Holler did some earnest preaching and much interest was manifested toward the close of the meeting. The church membership of the town was revived and many re-consecrated themselves to God, but no new members were received.

Mrs. Rosa Anderson, wife of the late Andy Anderson, died at the home of her son, Charles H. Anderson, at Glenwood mill, Sunday, the 11th instant, from pellagra, aged 68 years. She had been ill for some time and her death was not unexpected. She was a member of the Griffin Baptist church for many years. Four children, three sons and one daughter, are left to cherish her memory. The remains were carried to Griffin church and interred in the church cemetery the day following, Rev. Fulton Childress conducting the services.

Overland 5-Passenger Touring Car, Model 83

f. o. b. TOLEDO

$750

35 horsepower motor. High-tension magneto ignition. Electric starting and lighting. Left-hand drive, center control. Tires, 33 by 4 inches, non-skid in rear. Demountable rims (one extra rim). Full streamline body. Deep divan upholstery.

This is the Largest Four-Cylinder Overland That Will Be Produced This Year.

THE long, low streamline body is unmarred by angles or projections. From the rounded edge of the radiator to the full curved back, there is not a break in the lines. The hood slopes gently upward and blends into the beautifully curved cowl. The doors are flush, with hinges concealed and handles inside. The fenders are long and sweeping in their curves, with gracefully rounded surfaces. The running boards are clean and free from obstructions, the storage battery concealed, the tire carriers placed at the rear. The windshield is built-in, and conforms to the curve of the cowl—a part of the car itself, not an apparent afterthought. The car is superbly finished in a rich, deep Brewster green, delicately striped with pure ivory white, and set off in pleasing contrast by black enameled radiator, fenders and running board shield.

Model 83 touring car is a beautiful car. It asks no odds of any car at any price—it is at home in any company.

Three Family Reunions

On July the 4th the children and grandchildren, relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nations of Liberty route 3 gathered at the old home once more to celebrate the Fourth with dear father and mother. It was glorious and touching to those aged parents for all of their children to be with them at the old home again. At noon a large table was spread in the beautiful grove and loaded with many good things to eat. After all had partaken of the splendid dinner they gathered around the organ and enjoyed some good singing, after which some good prayers and talks were made. About 5 o'clock all began to depart for their respective homes. It was a sad parting, but there will come a time when there will be no more parting.

According to previous arrangement some of the relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Merck surprised them on July 4, when they met at the Merck home in commemoration of their birthdays and to celebrate Independence day. Owing to the inclemency of the weather many relatives and friends were deprived of the pleasure of being present. However, there were 100 present and all certainly had a nice time. Dinner was announced between 12 and 1 o'clock and the table was loaded down with everything that a hungry man could wish to satisfy a craving appetite. Those present were marched around the table and there paused and were silent while Mr. J. H. Durham returned thanks unto our Lord for the abundance of his blessings. Here the writer's vocabulary fails to furnish words to tell the rest. After dinner the crowd assembled in the house and on the porch, where they were highly entertained by Rev. B. F. Murphy, who made a most excellent talk. Mr. Merck is 73 years old, is the father of 12 children, has 60 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren. He served his country four years in the civil war and after the surrender came back home and took up peaceful and honorable life of a farmer with no earthly goods except his wearing apparel. He and Mrs. Merck have raised their family by hard work and honest dealings, now have a nice home, 70 acres of fertile land near Six mile, are out of debt and have plenty of everything around them. We hope their last days will be their happiest ones.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Pressley of the lower edge of Pickens county, near Symmes' mill, sprang a surprise on them last Tuesday, July 6. It being Mrs. Pressley's 68th birthday, the children and grandchildren prepared a dinner and all went in and had a nice time. The following children with their families, besides several friends, were present: W. L. Pressley and J. C. Pressley of Six Mile; John and Sam Brooks of Pendleton; S. M. Owen of Liberty; J. L. Pressley of Central and Lynn Spearman of the lower part of county. All their children were present but one. Mr. Pressley is 59 years old and both he and Mrs. Pressley are hale and hearty for their age. May they live to see many more birthdays is our prayer.

The Salem correspondent of the Seneca Journal says: Mr. Thomas Campbell and bride of Pickens were the guests of Mr. L. G. Lusk and family recently. Messrs. A. C. Smith and I. S. Alexander and others are thinking of trying the west this fall. Hold on, boys: plenty of bread in old Oconee yet if you will shovel it out. And remember the good water and many other good things we have. Mrs. Mary E. Holden is spending some time visiting relatives in Pickens county. Mr. Melton Alexander, of Pickens, whose health has been very delicate, is spending some time with his sister, Mrs. W. H. Lusk. His health is much improved much to the delight of his many friends here and elsewhere.

CATEECHEE NEWS NOTES

An Interesting Letter From B. Deaths—Picnic Rained Out.

This section has been blessed with good rains, consequently everything of a green nature is looking well.

With plenty of garden sauce, blackberries in full blast, a good wheat crop and watermelons in sight with notes and mortgages not yet due, July and August is the happiest time of the farmer's life. If he don't get religion then in a good revival meeting and hold it till debts begin to come due the devil ought to get him anyway. This is a hard old world to live in anyway, and if it was not for the consolation of a better place beyond this vale of tears it would have been better for us all if we had never been born. Then with the flames of a burning hell staring us in the face, isn't it strange how some men will sell their inheritance in this home for a drink of whiskey, a card or dice game, a dollars or a few hours' pleasure with some dissipated character? The four leading agents of the devil are a bottle of whiskey, a deck of cards, a pistol and a lewd woman. When the devil gets a man started after these four evils he has him just as near hell as he wants for him, not to be there.

Well, we started out to write up the news, but are about to drift from the subject. We may give a piece later on the evil things of this life, provided the editor of The Sentinel will give us space.

Magistrate G. R. Campbell visited homefolks in Pendleton Friday. We are sincerely sorry to note that George's health has not been very good of late.

Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Furman Robinson of near Norris, a few days ago, a fine daughter. Furman went out the next day to gather up laundry for the Asheville laundry, and it was well he did, for we are told that he needed the laundry worse than anyone else.

The rain on the 4th knocked out the picnic at Cateechee, but we are told they intend having it today, Saturday, the 10th.

We noticed an account of the old folks' singing not long ago. We wish the managers of it would send it down to some church in this section. It would be welcome any time. The best music we ever heard was at one of those singings.

There were two deaths at this place a few days ago, both from pellagra, namely, Mr. Gus Roberson and Mr. Frank Gilstrap. Mr. Roberson leaves a wife and three or four small children. His wife was a Miss James. Frank Gilstrap was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gilstrap of Norris and his wife was the eldest daughter of the late Rev. W. G. Mauldin. He leaves several small children. Mr. Roberson was buried from Six Mile and Mr. Gilstrap from Camp Creek.

A small infant of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Brown died and was buried from Camp Creek one day last week.
